

Important Information about how Home Forward and Your Housing May be Impacted by Recent Actions by the Federal Government

FEDERAL FUNDING FREEZE

As of February 7, 2025, the federal government has rescinded the document that began the federal funding freeze, and two courts have temporarily halted the freeze.

Home Forward IS NOT currently impacted by recent actions to freeze federal funding and is receiving the funding needed to operate our housing and programs as usual.

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

Home Forward is not a federal agency and not directly subject to recent Executive Orders (EOs). The EOs impact federal agencies such as the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). HUD provides the rules and funding for many of Home Forward's housing and programs. As of February 7, 2025, there are no changes at HUD that affect Home Forward's operations or your housing. Future changes at HUD may have an impact in ways that we do not yet know.

HOME FORWARD'S COMMITMENT

Home Forward is committed to keeping you stably housed. We WILL NOT make any changes to our operations that will negatively impact you, unless we are required to by a change in law or loss of funding.

Home Forward is committed to keeping you informed if any changes impact our ability to keep you stably housed at www.HomeForward.org.

SPEAK OUT

If you have concerns about recent federal actions, you may want to share them with your elected officials.
